CALENDAR

Locations

Sailing approximately 28 nm Southeast of Phuket brings you to the Phi Phi Islands – one of southern Thailand’s favorite tourist destinations. Stunning anchorages suitable for overnight stays, and the charming villages offer unique lunchtime stops. Many of the islands in this region are ringed with dazzling coral reefs so rich in marine life that you’ll be tempted to spend all of your time in the water. Mu Koh Similan National Park protects the region’s natural resources, and offers some of the finest diving locations in the world. The same volcanic eruptions that created such dramatic island landscapes eons ago also created equally dramatic underwater seascapes.
